CHAPTER 4 · LESSON 2: COOKING & CAKE BAKING ALGORITHMS (Pages 44–46)

■ One-Line Topic Concept: Cooking vegetables and baking cakes are delicious examples of everyday algorithms where ingredients must be added in the right order!

■ CHEF'S ALGORITHM GUIDE: ORDER OF ACTIONS

- [START] ➔ Gather clean ingredients and cooking tools.
- Preparation: Wash, peel, and cut fresh ingredients.
- Cooking: Mix, boil, fry, or bake with heat.
- [STOP] ➔ Serve food neatly and turn off appliances!

Activity 1 · Number the Cake Baking Steps in Correct Order (1 to 4):

(Based on Textbook Page 45 Cake Algorithm):

[ ] Bake the batter in the oven at the right temperature.

[ ] Gather ingredients (flour, eggs, sugar, butter). [START]

[ ] Decorate with frosting and serve delicious cake slices! [STOP]

[ ] Mix ingredients together into a smooth batter bowl.

Activity 2 · Fill in the Missing Cooking Steps (Textbook Page 44):

Word Bank: START • Wash • Cut • Fry • STOP

- Step 1: _____ (Beginning point)
- Step 2: _____ the fresh vegetables thoroughly with clean water.
- Step 3: _____ the washed vegetables into small cooking pieces.
- Step 4: Put pan on stove, add oil and _____ vegetables with spices.
- Step 5: Turn off stove and serve hot. _____ (End point).

Activity 3 · Number the Steps to Make Fresh Orange/Mango Juice (1 to 4):

[ ] Pour fresh juice into a glass and serve with a straw. [STOP]

[ ] Wash and peel the fresh ripe fruits. [START]

[ ] Blend smoothly in a blender with water and honey.

[ ] Cut the peeled fruits into clean slices.

Activity 4 · Critical Thinking (Spacious Writing Lines):

1. Can you bake a cake before mixing the ingredients together? Explain why:

Line 1: _____

Line 2: _____

2. What is the very first step in cooking any vegetable dish?

Line 1: _____

Line 2: _____

Activity 5 · Daily Breakfast Routine: 'Making Crunchy Butter Toast' (Order 1 to 4):

[ ] Spread delicious butter or jam over the warm toast.

[ ] Place two slices of fresh bread into the toaster. [START]

[ ] Enjoy your crispy breakfast toast with milk! [STOP]

[ ] Press down lever and wait for golden slices to pop up.